AMUSEMENTS

Vocal Feature at the Elite.
The management of the Elite theatre has for today a special feature for their patrons in store, which will no doubt meet with general approval. Miss Emilia Montinari, well-known to Pensacola's music-loving people as a singer with an exceptionally rich and melodious mezzo-soprano voice and of rare ability, will sing with Mr. Rayfield, who needs no introduction, a duet from one of the most popular and tuneful comic operas. This will without question prove a rare treat for everyone who will visit the Elite today and will add to the prestige of the theatre as the leading picture house in Pensacola.
In the extra program of today's pictures, three feature reels as usual, there will be included the latest release of the Thanhouser Company, who with the production of "Flames of Fortune" have won the distinction of being one of the most enterprising film manufacturers of the country. This picture is entitled "The Coffin Ship" and has a plot as unique as the title. The story is highly interesting while the production itself is up to the Thanhouser standard in every respect.

Great Moral Play at Bijou Today.
By a special effort of the management the Bijou theatre, Pensacola's leading motion picture house, is today running a sumptuous presentation of the famous play, "Ten Nights in a Bar Room." Seldom before in the history of the motion picture houses of Pensacola has so lasting a lesson to humanity been presented to the public of this city as is outlined in this splendid production.

The cast of characters who presented this wonderful and realistic drama for the Selig Film Manufacturing Company are from among the best that the country affords. The important characters that take part in the play are as follows: Rev. Romaine by W. H. Stowell, Joe Morgan by Charles Clarey, Simon Slade by Frank Weed, Sample Switchell by Rex Rosell, Mrs. Morgan by Kathryn Williams, Little Mary by Baby Remus, Mehltable Cartwright and Vera Hamilton.

Nearly every one has read the book which is one of those famous stories that never grows old. Every boy and girl in Pensacola is or should be familiar with every character in this famous story and there is little doubt but that the Bijou will receive the large attendance today that the production of so morally uplifting a story warrants.

"Ten Nights in a Bar Room" is a story that had won the praise from the press and pulpit from one end of the United States to the other and the work has been translated into several different languages so that its reputation is international.
In addition to this reel the Bijou will run two other feature reels today, making the program an all feature one. Special music and a special illustrated song will be rendered in honor of the occasion.

CASE AGAINST G. A. SMITH IS DISMISSED

WELL KNOWN INSURANCE MAN, WHO WAS BROUGHT HERE FROM MILTON ON CHARGE OF EMBEZZLEMENT, IS RELEASED.

Geo. A. Smith, who was arrested and brought back to this city from Milton a few days ago to answer to the charge of embezzlement, was discharged from custody and the case against him dismissed yesterday afternoon.
The case against Smith was instituted by Robert McKinnon, who claimed that he had paid Smith $224.50 as the first premium on a life insurance policy for $10,000, but that although he had made repeated efforts to do so, he had never been able to get Smith to turn the policy over to him.
Smith was for some time engaged in the insurance business here and was well and favorably known, and since leaving Pensacola he has been engaged in the same business in Milton.
A settlement which was satisfactory to all parties concerned was arranged yesterday and the case was not pressed.

THE OPINION OF CO. SOLICITOR CONCURRED IN

CITY ATTORNEY JOHN B. JONES SAYS HE STUDIED THE BASEBALL LAW AND BELIEVES THE OPINION OF MR. LOFTIN IS A SOUND ONE.

City Attorney John B. Jones concurs in the opinion of County Solicitor Scott M. Loftin as delivered a few days ago and printed in The Journal Wednesday morning, and it is understood that a number of other attorneys of the city who have looked into the matter take a similar view of it.
"I have gone into this matter pretty thoroughly," said Mr. Jones to a Journal representative yesterday afternoon, "and without hesitation I concur in the opinion as given by Mr. Loftin. It is very exhaustive, goes into the subject thoroughly and is sound and correct in my opinion."

COUNTY BOARD OF SANTA ROSA BE HERE TODAY

WILL HOLD JOINT SESSION WITH THE ESCAMBIA COMMISSIONERS RELATIVE TO ESTABLISHING FERRY OR BRIDGE ACROSS ESCAMBIA RIVER—ROAD TO MAKE OFFICIAL CANVASS THIS MORNING.

The board of commissioners of Santa Rosa county will be here today to hold a joint session with the Escambia commissioners relative to the establishment of a ferry or bridge across Escambia river to connect the two counties. The Santa Rosa board arrived on the 2:45 train last night from Marianna, where they attended the good roads meeting, and the session will be held this morning at 9 o'clock. Citizens are invited to attend this meeting.

The Escambia board went to Milton a few days ago and held a joint session with the Santa Rosa board and the commissioners from both counties visited a number of points on the Escambia river for the purpose of selecting the most feasible point for crossing. This question, together with other features of the proposition, will be discussed at the meeting today.

To Canvass Returns This Morning.
The board of county commissioners will meet tonight for the purpose of making the official canvass of the returns of the bond election held last Tuesday. Most of the ballot boxes are now in the vault at the court house and the others will be brought in before the meeting this morning.
The official count will be made and announced, but it is not thought that the count will make any difference in the figures already given out.

WILSON TO BE A CANDIDATE

NEW STATE ATTORNEY SAYS THAT HIS TERM EXPIRES IN MAY OF 1913 AND THAT HE WILL BE IN THE PRIMARIES OF NEXT YEAR.

Hon. Emmet Wilson, recently appointed state attorney for this circuit, to succeed his brother, will be a candidate for re-election in the primaries of next year, according to a statement made by him to a Journal representative yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Wilson was seen regarding his commission in which it seems an error was made when it was being prepared. It read for a term of four years, when it should have read for the unexpired term of C. L. Wilson, which ends in May, 1913.

Mr. Wilson said that he had returned the commission to the governor and expects a correct one returned.

SOCIALISTS OF MILWAUKEE FEEL HANDICAPPED

By Associated Press.
New York, June 29.—The socialists of Milwaukee who took charge of the city government more than a year ago feel themselves handicapped in the coming spring election by the fact that they possess no newspapers while their "capitalist" opponents, as they describe the Republican and Democrats collectively, have ten.

They want to raise $100,000 for the immediate purchase of a newspaper. Of this sum $45,000 has already been pledged and to help the work along, Mayor Emil Siedel of Milwaukee spoke at a meeting at Cooper Union here last night. An admission fee was charged and the promoters of the meeting also took up a collection. The hall was filled. The meeting was held under the auspices of the socialist party of New York. Outside hand bills signed by the McNamara defense committee and calling for a general strike were circulated. An overflow McNamara meeting was also held.
